VIEWS AND NEAR VIEWS: HINTS AND SUGGESTIONS

BY FRANK S. WOODSON, Industrial Editor.

Industrial Editor.

This column is open to contributors who have something to say of a suggestive nature, and who are willing to make hints and suggestions looking to the better development of the good old States of Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina, and who can hold their suggestions down in any one issue to from 150 to 200 words. Such communications, addressed to the Industrial Editor, will receive prompt attention.

Protect the Birds by Federal Law.

A right interesting letter comes to the Industrial Editor from a child of neutre and a lover of the beaturint. It is full of good hints and suggestions, and I am going to give it publicity and I am going to give it publicity inst as I find in an interesting letter comes to full of good hints and suggestions. It is full of good hints and suggestions, and I am going to give it publicity inst as I find of nature arise. "May I have the use of your estimable paper a pleas—an urgent plea on a vital questions."

On January 18th the McLean hill providing for proper Federal interestion for ingratory brids was given its first hearing in the United States Sentiate. This hill looks to the affording of brederal protection to birds which the laws of the various States have failed to a stready as the birds increase in numbers, the forces of the damaging inscent performance would thus be afforded as surely and as steadily as the birds increase in numbers, the forces of the damaging inscent performance would be the forces of the damaging inscent performance in the protection of the damaging inscent performance in or publicity and it is going to be just that when it gets all of protection to birds which the laws of the various States have failed to abord.

A Suffolk man told me vesterday as the birds increase in not elling what its wide-awake folks may do in a few months.

A Suffolk is much of a town, and after studying out these coints and after studying out these coints and other is not telling what its wide-awake folks may do in a few months.

Diversified Farming.

There is much talk these days about diversified farming. This subject alone could castly take up more space than could possibly be allowed in so short an

There is a happy medium between the extremes—the one crop farmer is an extremist and so is the man who diversifies too much. Therefore, a compromise between the two seems to be the practical solution of the problem

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Blacksburg. Va., January 17.—At an election held in the town of Blacksburg. Thursday, the tax-payers voted for a further issue of bonds to the amount of $1,000. to complete the three and one-half miles of sewerage that is now under process of construction, and a like sum to build a municipal building, the latter to contain a jail, mayor's office, assembly room and storage room. The first was carried by a majority of 72, only five votes being cast against it; the latter by a majority of 36.

Two years ago the town voted for an issue of bonds to the amount of 81,000 to instal a water and sewerage system that would furnish all business houses and private homes and give Blacksburg the fire protection that it lacked. To complete this it was necessary to have the additional sum that was granted in the election Thursday, and the entire system will be finished by next summer.

The town has been without a jail that was fit to keep a prisoner in, even for a few hours, and it has been necessary to next material to the second of the s

COUNCIL SCHEDULE.

Important Meeting of Finance Committee Tuesday Night.

The Council Committee on Finance will meet on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in regular session. It is expected that the dates will be set at that time for the public hearings on the various propositions to be included in the next annual budget. The Committee on Public Buildings, Properties and Utilities will also meet on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Among the papers to be considered is a resolution from the Administrative Board asking a conference in regard to city plumbing. A number of ordinances in regard to city improvements have been referred to this committee.

other Council committees sched-uled for this week are the Committee on Advertising and Enterprises on Thursday night at 5 o'clock, and an ad-journed meeting of the Committee on Ordinances called for the name night to consider the ordinance limiting the number of licensed pawnbrokers.
